

Grand Opening Ceremony of the Scouting in Aviation Display

Hiller Aviation Museum
Saturday, March 13, 2010 at 1:30 pm

Come celebrate the 100th Anniversary of the Boy Scouts of America with this exclusive display of rare artifacts from the little known Air Scouts/Air Explorers program of the 1940's and 50s.

- See the Air Scout Ace Medal, the highest rank, earned by Jerry Mitvalsky of Burlingame Air Scout Squadron #1
- Check out a complete collection of Air Scout/Air Explorer insignia and memorabilia from the past
- Find out how many astronauts were Scouts and how many Eagle Scouts went to the moon
- View vintage photographs of Air Scouts and Air Explorers in action
- Learn about aviation related opportunities in Scouting today
- Get your Museum Tour passport stamped – a required stop to earn the Museum Tour patch
- See the rest of the Hiller Aviation Museum's impressive aircraft and interactive displays

Museum admission required (visit www.hiller.org).

Free admission to Scout youth in uniform on March 13, 2010.
